

Computer Security

The Computer Security module covers different types of computers and multiple ways to secure them, such as firewalls and password settings. Also goes over how user actions affect computer security.

90-minute session